

School District Legal Status

0120.00

The legal basis for public education in the school district is vested in the will of the people as expressed in the Wisconsin Constitution. Public education is primarily a state responsibility and a local school district's function.

The official name of this school district is the "School District of Monticello". It is classified as a common school district and includes the village of Monticello and all or parts of the towns of Adams, Albany, Brooklyn, Exeter, Monroe, Mount Pleasant, New Glarus, and Washington in Green County. Educational services of the district shall be organized as a program of instruction for grades Pre-kindergarten through Grade Twelve. The district shall be operated as a single system by the Board of Education under the direction of the district administrator.

The School District of Monticello shall consist of an elementary, middle, and high school. The Board may authorize the district administrator to establish other special classrooms or programs when necessary. With Board authorization, the district administrator may enter into sharing (66:030) agreements with other school districts to enhance the educational offerings.

Legal References: WI Constitution, Article X, Section 3
WI Statutes Section 115.01 (5)

Cross References:

Approved: February 11, 1987

Revised: April 11, 2007